A Moving Affair gala, proudly presented by the Bisson Family, brought together more than 350 supporters for an unforgettable evening of compassion and commitment to advancing Shelter Movers' mission to provide free moving and storage services to survivors fleeing gender-based violence. Guided by Keynote Speaker Paulo Leone — who reminded guests that far too many children are growing up in unsafe homes — the night highlighted the urgent need for safe pathways forward.

Through powerful storytelling, moving performances, and a united sense of responsibility, the community rallied together. With the support of attendees and the RBC Capital Markets matching gift, the event generated over $650,000.

These funds will help Shelter Movers support more than 260 families during critical transitions to safety, offering practical help and dignity to families and individuals across Canada. The evening showcased the impact of collective action and the hope it creates for survivors to begin again.
